Obama to Jonathan: give anti-graft battle priority

■ Nigeria seeks US support

US PRESIDENT Barack Obama has urged Nigerian President Umaru Musa Yar'Adua to prioritise the fight against corruption in his country's political system. In a speech at the African Union summit in New York on Tuesday, Mr Obama said: "Nigeria has made progress in recent years, but there is still more to be done. We must continue to work together to combat corruption and promote good governance." The US president also called for greater investment in Africa's infrastructure and development.
